A sign-in form with the following fields: "Email" (a text input field), "Password" (a text input field), a "Sign in" button, a "Stay signed in" checkbox, and a link that says "Can't access your account?". The Google logo is in the top right corner of the form.

Create a new Google Account

Your Google Account is more than just Google+.

Talk, chat, share, schedule, store, organize, collaborate, discover, and create. Use Google products from Gmail to Google+ to YouTube, view your search history, all with one username and password, all backed up all the time and easy to find at (you guessed it) Google.com.

Take it all with you.

A Google Account lets you access all your stuff — Gmail, photos, and more — from any device. Search by taking pictures, or by voice. Get free turn-by-turn navigation, upload your pictures automatically, and even buy things with your phone using Google Wallet.

Share a little. Or share a lot.

Share selectively with friends, family (maybe even your boss) on Google+. Start a video hangout with friends, text a group all at once, or just follow posts from people who fascinate you. Your call.

A form for creating a new Google Account. It includes fields for "Name" (First and Last), "Choose your username" (with a @gmail.com suffix), "Create a password" and "Confirm your password", "Birthday" (Month, Day, Year), "Gender" (I am...), "Mobile phone" (with a country code dropdown), "Your current email address", and a "Prove you're not a robot" section with a CAPTCHA image.

Fill in the information as requested here, then click the blue "Next Step" button.
